

Marsh Farm Futures is seeking food vendors to provide food an offering at our upcoming Windrush Celebration event. We aim to offer a culturally diverse street food market at the event which will also feature music from carnival style stacked speakers, inflatable helterskelter, giant garden games and a free exhibition celebrating the Windrush generation and wider Caribbean culture.

Food vendors must have:

- Proof of Public Liability Insurance cover of £5 million
- Registered as food business with local authority
- Be listed on the Food Standards Agency online food hygiene database

We only have a limited number of spaces for food vendors and preference will be given vendors offering culturally significant food.
